COURSE OBJECTIVES

This 60-hour training program is designed to reflect the nature of interpreting situations encountered by interpreter as they relate to community services settings.

The course is ideal for anyone who has mastery of two or more languages as well as solid cultural understanding of both, Canadian and their own homeland culture, and the ability to adapt to various situations as encountered by community Interpreters.

On successful completion of the course, participants will be given a certificate.

By the end of the course, clients will:

- Understand how culture, values, norms influence communication
- Understand and express their role and responsibilities specifically as they relate to consecutive interpreting, both to service providers and non-English speakers
- Know how to intervene effectively for the purposes of clarification and cultural bridging
- Ensure interpreting process is not biased in favour or one party
- Understand CISOC's Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice
